Little guy, named Kiran, was just playing with a ball, but he accidentally broke the window with it, so his furious father gave him the whole nine yards - he closed Kiran out of his house. Then he went to a living room and started watching a TV. Meanwhile, Kiran was sad - his dad, his own dad threatened him. He was scaring little boy with a cruel punishment - beating. And kid didn't want to be beaten up - his classmates would laugh at him if they'll see him with bumps. So he didn't try to protest. His dad, Mr. Soudan, was sitting in the living room and watched a football match, but suddenly he thought: it was already 12:40 pm, but Kiran didn't return. It was making him stressed, he started to pace the floor. Where Kiran was? Nobody knows... He came out to a forest near his home. He started to look for his son desperately - but the last one was nowhere to be found... Mr. Soudan was frustrated and came back to a home. He was regretting his misdeeds. But it was too late now. When he almost reached for a door knob, a ball flew out of the window, breaking it. This ball was too familiar. The door opened Kiran came out and... His dad hugged him crying and apologizing quietly...
 Lesson - don't be cruel to your children.
